

27th Sunday of the Year

Entrance Antiphon O Lord, you have given everything its place in the world, and no one can make it otherwise. For it is your creation, the heavens and the earth and the stars; you are the Lord of all..

First Reading: Genesis 2: 18-24

Psalms 127

Response: May the Lord bless us all the days of our life.

1. O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways! By the labour of your hands you shall eat. You will be happy and prosper. (R)

2. Your wife will be like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house; your children like shoots of the olive around your table. (R)

3. Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord. May the Lord bless you from Zion in a happy Jerusalem all the days of your life! May you see your children's children. On Israel, peace! (R)

Second Reading: Hebrews 2: 9-11

Gospel Acclamation:

:Alleluia! Alleluia! Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 10: 2-10

Communion Antiphon: The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to those who are searching for his love.

We welcome into our parish Edie Narelle Jones, who is to be baptised this Sunday after Mass. Please pray for her and her parents and god-parents.

Weekly Guide to Daily Prayer

Anxiety about getting things done, fear of losing wealth and lack of compassion for our neighbours are all themes in this week's gospel. This can be a week of asking God for the wisdom and discernment we need to find the balance in our lives and a sense of where our focus should really be.

We can do this by threading our days with an awareness of God's presence in the tiny moments of quiet time that we come across. As we awaken and sit by the side of our bed, we can simply ask, "Loving God, help me to love you today with all my heart, all my being, all my strength, and with all my mind. Help me to see you in my neighbour today".

Later in the day, as things seem to go faster and get more complex, we can ask again not to be anxious about so many things and to remember the great gift of Jesus' presence in our lives.

As we go through our day we can again ask our Lord to let us be aware of the presence of the loved ones we come into contact with - the real "riches" we have in our lives

The Our Father has been called the perfect prayer and this week might be a good time to focus on it with our whole hearts. In the quiet moments we can practice this week saying each line of the prayer, very slowly perhaps, stopping to ponder one line that calls to our hearts in a special way.

*Hallowed be thy name.
Thy will be done....
Give us this day our daily bread ...
Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive others....
Lead us not into temptation...*

May this week be blessed with the opportunity to continue to ask for what we need, over and over.

Let us pray: Almighty, ever-living God, who in the abundance of your kindness surpass the merits and desires of those who entreat you, pour out your mercy upon us to pardon what conscience dreads and to give what prayer does not dare to ask.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever Amen.
