

28th Sunday of the Year

Entrance Antiphon If you, O Lord, laid bare our guilt, who could endure it? But you are forgiving, God of Israel.

First Reading: Wisdom 7: 7-12

Psalm 89

Response: Fill us with your love that we may rejoice.

1. Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants.. (R)
2. In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Give us joy to balance our affliction for the years when we knew misfortune. (R)
3. Show forth your work to your servants; let your glory shine on their children. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us; give success to the work of our hands. (R)

Second Reading: Hebrews 4: 12-13

Gospel Acclamation:

:Alleluia! Alleluia! Blessed are you, Lord of heaven and earth, for revealing the mysteries of the kingdom to mere children. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 10: 17-30

Communion Antiphon: The rich suffer want and go hungry, but nothing shall be lacking to those who fear the Lord.-

CAFOD The Disasters Emergency Committee, of which CAFOD is a member, has launched an appeal in response to the earthquake and tsunami in Indonesia. CAFOD will share in the money raised by DEC to help our response in Indonesia. Supporters can also donate directly to CAFOD. Harvest Fast Day appeal donations help all our work - including emergencies. Over 1,347 people have been killed and thousands of .....

The 4th community guitar school are planning a series of Carol Singing sessions in local Care Homes. This enables young people learning guitar to practise live performance, which raises confidence and also deepens the motivation of pupils for the discipline of learning. The practice sessions are on Thursday at 4.45pm and we welcome any singers or guitar players to join us.

Care Home visits are generally on Saturday or Sunday afternoons. Any parishioners who work in care homes are welcome to request a session at their place of work.

We'd be grateful to any parishioners who have unused guitars lying around and who seek a good home for these to contact Fr Charles or Tony Murphy (leads guitar group every second Sunday) We need more guitars for pupils. (even on loan ?)

(continued).....homes destroyed after a 7.5 magnitude earthquake, which triggered a tsunami, struck Central Sulawesi Province, Indonesia, on Friday 28 September. Our local Caritas agency, Caritas Indonesia - known as Karina - are already on the ground in two dioceses near the affected area - Makassar in South Sulawesi and Manado in North Sulawesi. They are making their way to the worst-hit areas, getting emergency aid to where it's needed and carrying out rapid assessments.

Weekly Guide to Daily Prayer

Anxiety about getting things done, fear of losing wealth and lack of compassion for our neighbours are all themes in this week's gospel. This can be a week of asking God for the wisdom and discernment we need to find the balance in our lives and a sense of where our focus should really be.

We can do this by threading our days with an awareness of God's presence in the tiny moments of quiet time that we come across. As we awaken and sit by the side of our bed, we can simply ask, "Loving God, help me to love you today with all my heart, all my being, all my strength, and with all my mind. Help me to see you in my neighbour today".

Later in the day, as things seem to go faster and get more complex, we can ask again not to be anxious about so many things and to remember the great gift of Jesus' presence in our lives.

As we go through our day we can again ask our Lord to let us be aware of the presence of the loved ones we come into contact with - the real "riches" we have in our lives

The Our Father has been called the perfect prayer and this week might be a good time to focus on it with our whole hearts. In the quiet moments we can practice this week saying each line of the prayer, very slowly perhaps, stopping to ponder one line that calls to our hearts in a special way.

*Hallowed be thy name.
Thy will be done....
Give us this day our daily bread ...
Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive others....
Lead us not into temptation...*

May this week be blessed with the opportunity to continue to ask for what we need, over and over.

Let us pray: Almighty, ever-living God, who in the abundance of your kindness surpass the merits and desires of those who entreat you, pour out your mercy upon us to pardon what conscience dreads and to give what prayer does not dare to ask.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever Amen.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Fabian Clancy of this parish, who sadly died on 4th September. His Requiem Mass is due to take place on Monday 22nd October at 11.30am at St Ambrose RC Church, Princess Road, Manchester M21 7QA, followed by burial at the Southern Cemetery nearby. May he rest in peace.

Jokes for our atheist friends.

Q: Why did the Atheist cross the road?
A: He thought there might be a street on the other side, but he wouldn't believe it until he tested his hypothesis.

Atheist: What's this fly doing in my soup?
Waiter: Praying.
Atheist: Very funny. I can't eat this. Take it back.

Waiter: You see? The fly's prayers were answered
