

14th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon:

Within your temple, we ponder your loving kindness, O God. As your name, so also your praise reaches to the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with justice.

First Reading: Isaiah 66: 10-14

Psalm 65 Response: Cry out with joy to God all the earth

1. I Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God "How tremendous are your deeds!" (R)

2. "Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!"
Come and see the works of God,
tremendous his deeds among men. (R)

3. He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the river dry-shod.
Let our joy then be in him;
he rules for ever by his might.. (R)

4. Come and hear all who fear God. I will tell you what he did for my soul.
Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer
nor withhold his love from me.. (R)

Second Reading: Galatians 6: 14-18

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia! Alleluia!
I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 10: 1-12 17-20

Communion Antiphon: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord. Blessed is he who hopes in God. Alleluia

SEA SUNDAY - 14th July

On Sea Sunday, July 14th, there will be a collection taken to support the Apostleship of the Sea. They provide practical and pastoral care to all seafarers in Britain and elsewhere. Its port chaplains and volunteer ship-visitors welcome seafarers, offer welfare services and advice, practical help, care and friendship, according to the guiding principles of Mission, Solidarity, Welfare and Hospitality.

Apostleship of the Sea in the UK is part of an international network known to the maritime world as Stella Maris. Ninety per-cent of world trade is transported by ship. However, the life of a modern seafarer can be dangerous and lonely. They may spend up to a year at a time away from home, separated from their family and loved ones and often working in harsh conditions.

The Apostleship of the Sea relies wholly on voluntary contributions. They are only able to continue their work through the generous donations of supporters and volunteers. Sea Sunday gives us a chance to show our concern by our prayers and our financial contributions For more information visit www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk

14th SUNDAY QUOTES

A blind man will not thank you for a looking-glass.
(English Proverb)

Faith is taking the first step even when you don't see the whole staircase.
(Martin Luther King)

Weekly Guide to Daily Prayer

As Jesus heals, he gives courage. As he carries out his ministry of healing and announcing the terrific news of the closeness of the Kingdom of God, he is filled with compassion for all those who suffer and who need this encouraging news. So Jesus calls us to join him. This isn't the call to priesthood or religious life. This is the universal call addressed to all of us to see with his own compassionate eyes and to reach out and heal others. As Jesus sends us, he knows that we will encounter resistance and opposition - sometimes from within our own heart first, but certainly from others. He always tells us not to be afraid. Even when things happen that take away our peace, our peace will be given back to us. He knows he is sending us like sheep among the wolves of this world, and so he to be both wise and simple - two great gifts for our mission. He assures us that even when we don't know how to speak tender or reconciling words, the Spirit will speak through us. The only thing we need to fear is the stuff we get into that can actually destroy our soul.

What a great week to ask for the grace to be responsive to his call! All week, with attentive eyes, we can see with Jesus' own compassion, where he is directing our heart to love and to heal. We begin the week with such a great orientation. Jesus invites us to come to him with our burdens and the stuff that weighs us down and he sends us. He doesn't say we are not supposed to expect burdens. He just invites us to take up his burden, the ministry he gives to each of us. Each day, following our pattern of focusing throughout the day in brief moments of conversation and connection with the Lord, we can consciously recognize the "calls" the Lord has given us and is offering us. And we can acknowledge them, accept them, embrace them. Of course, our primary relationships are all the ways we live our discipleship call. So often though, these relationships are where we need the greatest courage to be tender, compassionate and courageous in loving, in letting the Spirit speak through us. Let's ask ourselves all week: how can I bring healing and peace to each important relationship in my life? And, where I'm afraid, or resistant, or even where I've given up, that can be the place of the deepest and most important prayer of the week. It certainly can be the place we come to Jesus to be refreshed.

All week, we can try to be conscious of how our day to day work is part of our call from the Lord: to be an agent in the world for good, to make products, to offer goods and services to people, to coordinate human activities, to protect and defend others' rights, to heal others. Some of us are still available to be called to a specific work or ministry. This is a great week to ask for openness. Every one of us can find great meaning and deeper peace in placing what we do in the pattern of our response to God's call to us, through Jesus. When we do our work, we can thank the Lord for this work, ask to do it faithfully, lovingly, compassionately and justly. Some of us are struggling to find work that offers us dignity and a living wage. We can ask the Lord to send us to be his servants, with our gifts, and trust in his fidelity.

As we move through the week, growing in our relationship with the Lord, as we make this more conscious background moments of insight, recognition and connection, we can give thanks and trust that if we scatter his seed, with trust and with abandon, we don't have to worry. The harvest has his guarantee of abundance
