INSTRUCTIONS FOR MY FUNERAL MASS FORM

Planning your Catholic funeral in advance can help relieve the burden on your family at a difficult time and ensure that your personal wishes are known and respected. Some of us do not fear death, but, like many others, we tend to put off thinking or talking about it. Unfortunately, funeral arrangements are often made at a time of great distress and sometimes in haste. Consequently, the funeral may not fully reflect the wishes of the person who has died. Have you considered whether you would prefer a Requiem Mass or a simpler funeral service? You are invited to complete as much of the form as you wish, indicating your personal preferences and wishes concerning your funeral. This may include the Scripture readings, hymns, prayers and other aspects of the liturgy, as well as instructions concerning your body.

Far from being a morbid exercise, making these preparations is both a thoughtful gesture towards your loved ones and a responsible way of ensuring that your wishes are known.
You are encouraged to inform your family or a trusted friend of the existence of this document and to keep it in a safe but easily accessible place where it can be found when needed.
Please note: Once completed, you are advised to inform your family, Parish Priest and/or Funeral Director of its existence. You may also wish to review and update it from time to time.
You can download a copy from the Diocesan website or request one directly from Father Anthony.

We invite all parishioners to join us for this special celebration.

Prayer for the Renewal of the Diocese.

Loving Father, you sent your Son into the world to open the gates of heaven and to teach us to know, love and serve you. We thank you for those who first proclaimed the Faith in this land, and for those who have kept alive the flame of faith for generations. As we look to the future, fill us with the Holy Spirit that with joy and boldness we may live and proclaim the Gospel. Give wisdom to our Bishop and priests as they lead us and nourish us all with the Eucharist that we may be witnesses of the resurrection; we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.
St David, pray for us.
